BY-LAW 1 – PROCEDURE AT MEETINGS

Meetings of this organization shall be conducted according to the following order:

1. Minutes of the previous meeting and business arising there from.
2. Appointment of steering, credentials, and other temporary committees.
3. Accounts and communications, and business arising there from.
4. Reports of Officers.
5. Reports of Committees.
6. Business arising from reports.
7. Unfinished business.
8. New business.
9. Adjournment.

BY-LAW 2 – CONDUCT OF MEETINGS

Section 1 – Officer’s Responsibility

1. The responsibility for conducting meetings lies with the Chair of the meeting, the President or the President’s designate.
2. The success of any O.S.S.T.F. meeting at Branch, District, or Provincial level depends chiefly upon three factors: adequate preparation and detailed organization by the Executive officers; familiarity with procedural methods and with the role of each officer; and strict adherence to the rules of order.

Section 2 – Role of the Presiding Officer

Following are the duties of the Presiding Officer:

- a) call the meeting to order at the appointed time,
- b) announce the business which should come before the assembly in its proper order,
- c) assign the floor to members who desire to speak. Having recognized the right of the member to the floor, it is the duty of the Presiding Officer to protect the speaker from disturbances or interference. On the other hand, the Presiding Officer must never hesitate when the interest of the organization or its members requires, to permit a speaker to be interrupted to limit the number of speakers to a motion,
- d) state all motions that have been correctly proposed and seconded and restate, in the best possible form, and, without changing the meaning, any motion the proposer has failed to state correctly or clearly. Any restatement or change must be acceptable however to the proposer,
- e) explain what the effect of a motion would be if it is not clear to every member, and to make certain that members understand exactly what business is pending,
- f) restrict discussion to the question before the assembly,
- g) answer all parliamentary inquiries and decide points of order and questions of privilege as soon as they arise, but never to discuss a motion from the chair,

- h) when the discussion on a question has ceased or has been closed by a motion to that effect, the Presiding Officer restates the exact question upon which the assembly is to vote, and put the question to vote,
- i) vote in the case of a tie when authorized by the By-Laws,
- j) state definitely and clearly the result of a vote,
- k) protect the assembly from annoyance by refusing to recognize motions that are frivolous in character or that are made solely for the purpose of blocking business or of consuming time,
- l) sign all acts or orders necessary to carry out the will of the assembly, and
- m) act as the representative of the organization to outside persons or to other organized bodies whenever necessary.

Section 3 – Debate

- a) No debate shall be held on a topic until there is a motion on the floor (i.e., a question has been moved, seconded, and stated to the assembly by the Presiding Officer).
- b) All motions shall be written and presented to the Presiding Officer.
- c) A time limit may be set on debate if the assembly so decides.
- d) The mover of a motion shall have the privilege of being first speaker in the debate on the motion and shall have the further privilege of speaking once more to conclude the debate.
- e) A member who wishes to speak must first be recognized by the chair and must begin by stating whether supporting or opposing the motion.
- f) A member may not speak more than twice on a motion, and a member who has not spoken has priority over a member who has already spoken once.
- g) A member who has already spoken to a question has no right to rise again and propose an amendment or the adjournment of the assembly. The member may speak to amendments when they are proposed by other members.
- h) If free debate on a topic is desirable without the necessity of having a motion on the floor, the assembly may go into a Committee of the Whole for such a debate. At the conclusion of such free debate, a member may move that the Committee of the Whole “rise and report” at which time any resolutions passed in Committee of the Whole may be proposed as main motions.

Section 4 – Amendments

- a) An amendment must bear such close relationship to the motion that the general idea is not changed.
- b) A motion may be amended by
 - insertion or addition
 - deletion
 - deletion for insertion
 - substitution
- c) There may be an amendment to an amendment

- d) If an amendment to an amendment or an amendment carries, it is proper to put the original motion as amended.

Section 5 – Notice of Motion

- a) Notice of Motion may be either Specific or General. For a change in the Constitution or for a change in policy it should be specific and should be presented in conformity with Article 9 of the Constitution.
- b) A Notice of Motion should be in writing, read to the meeting and then put in the hands of the Presiding Officer.
- c) When a Notice of Motion is given specifically, the motion when presented, may be debated but may not be amended.
- d) When at a subsequent meeting this motion is presented, amendments, as well as debate are permissible.

Section 6 – Order of Motions

The procedures with respect to privileged and subsidiary motions shall apply as set forth in the accompanying table. Motions shall have precedence according to this table. Each motion on the list has precedence over those below and is superseded by those above.

8. Can be applied only to a motion carried during the same meeting, provided action has not been taken on the actions to be rescinded.
9. To rescind a motion, which required more than a simple majority to pass, a vote at least as large is required.
10. Can be applied only to a motion defeated during the same meeting.

Section 7 – Types of Motion

- a) Adjournment – used to cease business.
- b) Recess – to cease business for a specified length of time.
- c) Table – In an emergency situation this allows the assembly to put aside business that is on the floor so the emergency can be dealt with.
- d) Take from the table – resumes consideration of business that was temporarily set aside
- e) Previous question – a motion to have a vote taken immediately on the question that is pending.
- f) Limit or extend time of debate – the assembly decides to set a limit on the length of time that debate shall continue on a topic.
- g) Postpone to a set time – an action or a pending question can be deferred in this manner. A question can be postponed to be considered at a more convenient time or because there are reasons for holding off on a decision.
- h) Refer (Commit) – this motion sends the question to a committee to be investigated and more thoroughly prepared for the consideration of the assembly.
- i) Amend – changes the wording of a motion before the motion is acted on.
- j) Postpone indefinitely – this motion is similar to a motion to postpone but this motion kills the motion under consideration.
- k) Rescind – this motion can change an action previously taken or ordered.
- l) Reconsider – allows the bringing back for further consideration of a motion, which has already been voted on. This motion must be made during the same meeting that the original motion was voted on.

Section 8 – Requests

- a) Questions of Privilege – related to any matter affecting rights and immunities of the Assembly collectively, or to the position and conduct of members in their respective character.

- b) Parliamentary Inquiry
 - a question to the Presiding Officer relating to procedure or to the meaning or effect of the impending motion
 - a question to speaker or proposer of the motion about the pending question
- c) Point of Order – a question to the Presiding Officer regarding a possible breach of rules or order.

Section 9 – Appeals

- a) Appeals from the decision of the chair – the challenging member may state his reason for objecting to the decision of the Presiding Officer and the Presiding Officer may reply: “The vote in on ‘Sustaining’ or ‘over-ruling’ the chair’s decision”. A simple majority is required.
- b) Appeal from the decision to withdraw a motion – if a member objects to the withdrawal of a motion once it is on the floor, the assembly must vote; simple majority to carry.

BY-LAW 3 – COLLECTIVE BARGAINING

The following procedures shall govern Collective Bargaining:

Section 1- Collective Bargaining Committee:

- a) The Collective Bargaining Committee for each set of negotiations shall consist of the following voting members:
